Indeed, he made it very clear that he thinks the sentenc=ng system (which he helped form as a member of the Sentencing Commission) =s broken and while you are past having to deal with that, I would like to =hink this raises some hope that the rest of the system will improve if oth=rs in his position feel the same.

Tomorrow I go to Alabama to argue before the court of appeals regardin= the constitutionality of Alabama's Community Notification Act, which =he lower court struck down as unconstitutional already. Ultra right win= court and election year, so who knows; but these laws are so Draconian.=A0

I saw that the U.S. Attorney's office is appearing in your civil c=ses as well. Some strange folks in that office. Anyway, I will look =orward to talking and while all the judges are going to be tough, Judges M=rra and Johnson so far have not been rubber stamps for government in my ca=e and that means something.
