Please forward to J.E.

I have spoken to Sikorsky and here is the pa=ment schedule, I am going to base it on the 12.1m price before your options (the 12.1m is a vip northeast configuration) currently your option I think we could get for an addit=onal 1.3m. the real play here is the price break, after the NE clients the retail goes to around 14m but realistically I think a buyer would get one for 13.6m still 1.5m more than you would be paying and if the market heats u= look how we sold your first C++ for 12.6m I think you paid in the high 10m range (don't recall exactly)

<=p>

The play here is=A0 the slot, your ship would be between serial number 30/35 I think green delivery 3rd qtr 2012 final del 2nd/3rd qtr 2013. Sikorsky says maybe a qtr sooner but I think we all doubt that.

<=p>

The last C++ comes=off the assembly line middle of next year, only 20 left.....this could also be a very interesting play to buy the very last ship off the line, configured for offshore, the offshore buyers will still need machines and have a large C++ fleet...depends if we could buy it right...any interest ?

<=p>

20% due at contract signing... approx 2,420,000

<=p>

The next two payme=ts are combined and occur at green delivery

<=p>

80% due at green delivery approx=span style="color:navy"> 8,450,000

40% start completion

<=p>

=A0

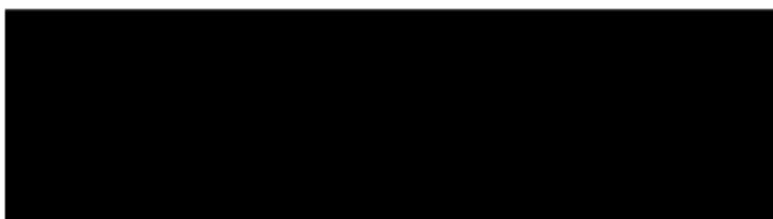

40% end completion =A0 approx1,230,000
