Dear Richard,

It was a pleasure speaking with you =his morning.

Per our discussion, we are actively looking for top works of =rt for the forthcoming April 18th sale here in NY. We =lready have fantastic lots coming up, including some major Egyptian =orks, plus a large group of Greek vases. As for marbles, I have =ot seen much, although we do have a very fine Roman marble torso. =ur recent sales indicate that the market is super-heated and the demand =or "masterpiece" level objects is at an all-time high, =nd not just with traditional collectors of ancient art. We are =eeing buying from across the globe, including Latin America, the Gulf =nd now China as well. The deadline for inclusion in the April =ale is mid- to late-February.

In terms of the estimates, my =uggestions as follows:

Herakles $1,500,000/2,500,000
Two Boys $600,000/800,000

As mentioned previously provenance has =ecome a key factor for success at auction. We know both the =erakles and the two boys come from the Estate of Jan Mitchell, and =dditionally that the boys were acquired by him from Fallani, who has =onfirmed this with us. Thanks to the former curator of Greek and =oman at the MET, we have sufficient information that confirms both =ieces have sufficient provenance to fulfill Christie's =quirements. If there is a way to find out if Mitchell acquired =he Herakles prior to 1970, its salability would increase =ramatically.

My estimates are not etched in stone so I would be happy to =iscuss further if the numbers do not meet expectations.

Please do not hesitate to let me know if you have any questions or concerns, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

All the best,

Max
