I had asked you repeatedly to let me bring her to new york , where there is=staff, fcailities the best animal medical care , i told you the animal med=cal center was on 61 and the river, I had called them and they said no =roblem flying privately with balle. you had repeated over and over no, =ou would not travel because you wanted to stay with her. Knowing your love=for that dog, i let you do as you pleased. you take it to an emergency =acility in west palm, without knowing anything about the place or people. =fter weeks of talking about this , you tell me that sarah and you, sarah w=o told you she knows nothing about these things , and as is your right =ou change your mind and leave the dog with strangers. it is your right =o do as you please with your dog. I had asked that you come with me to =ew york , you told me you couldn;t. when i asked merely asked what happ=ned , you kept saying why do you want to know, why did i want to know that=after weeks of planning , and caring for the most important living thing i= your life, , you decide to leave it in a facility you know nothing about =ith people you know nothing about, because they are an animal center is so=far from anything i can understand, so I aksed if you are ok, as i am tryi=g to figure out why ,and what happended and all you do is keep asking why = want to know.
