Hi Jeffrey,

I am doing well. Another long week flew by. I am getting used to the h=urs and don't mind working so much. I am pretty excited to go to work.=

There are a few exciting things. The main manager picked a group of five= promising newcomers to mentor and I am on it. For the month of august the= manager (Karla) is tracking our progress, gross fees and marketing. We meet once a week and discuss our challenges and progress made and share ideas=on improvement. In an office meeting this week (most agents were present)= Karla made an example of all of us and shared our production numbers with=the entire office. I brought in about 13,000 gross fees to the company in =he month of August.

Another exciting thing is training for sales in the next few months. My=anger Marlon picked me and another guy to train for sales out of at least=20 other people. We will start going aggressively after sales listing to get exclusives by approaching the owners. We are getting coaching from real =state coach Tom Ferry via phone conferences. I listed in on the last one.<=r>

Today Marlon took us out to lunch and made it clear the he wants to wor= on sales and rentals with the two of us as a team going into 2011 and tha= we can produce as much as him (he is a top producer in the firm bring in =0000+ monthly) within a year or so.

It's hard to believe but very motivating to aspire to that level.

I rented another apartment today. Finally :) The last one was last Friday=

I officially topped my smith barney wages today. I was getting 22=0 a month at smith barney and already received 2500 in August and have about 900 more coming to me next week. :)

What do have to say to that?

I think I rock! Very motivated to keep=going and improving.

Kisses
