Yeah! My niece and nephew left this morning. Hopefully some peace and =uiet!

Paul Greengard (Nobel laureate) thinks my ideas about the vagus are pr=tty cool and he says that I should come to NYC and work in his lab and he =ill help me figure it out, or at least get started. He says he wants in ea=ly on so that he can win his second Nobel.

If I can figure out the finances etc I will see about starting a part =ime posting at Rockefeller (one week per month) in February 2011. He told =e that I should try to finance this by myself early on (at least until one=publication laying it out) because if I go to NIH or NSF for funding, some=ne will jump on the idea.

I've been looking for a career change but I can't leave orbit =ntil my own mass increases a little. Plus Steve needs to stay at MSFT for = bit more.

What do you think? We can talk later - I'm in an all day "man=gement training session" and then all day tomorrow I take Bill's =aughter (suuuuper smart!) into the operating room with me to observe a Chi=ri 1 decompression.

OK gotta roll more soon...
