About T=e Ranch Dolomites

Limited to just 20 participants each week The Ranch Dolomites will immerse guests in the natural splendor of the Italian peaks while experiencing The Ranch's signature, results-oriented health and wellness program. Under the guidance of experienced Ranch staff and highly skilled local guides, mornings will be spent hiking the majestic mountains of this UNESCO Natural World Heritage site. Centered in San Cassiano and near Cortina, the hundreds of miles of trails offer breathtaking views of the picturesque countryside, emerald-green meadows, waterfalls, Swiss Alps and jagged peaks of the Dolomites. Afternoons will be filled with fitness programming including both strength training and yoga and meditation along with our signature daily massages (we are taking our Ranch massage team).

Guests will stay at the iconic and boutique Rosa Alpina hotel, a charming family-owned and operated, 70-year old Relais & Chateaux property in San Cassiano. The luxurious accommodations and five-star service will mirror what we offer at The Ranch as guests enjoy private accommodations in rooms complete with luxurious touches such as separate tubs and showers.

Led by The Ranch 4.0 Program Manager Angela Lara, The Ranch Dolomites is sure to be a memorable and rewarding experience. Chef Meredith Haaz from our 4.0 culinary team will also be working with Rosa Alpina's Michelin-starred culinary staff to create an inspired menu with local Italian flair.

The Ranch Dolomites will be offered exclusively this summer from August 19, 2018– September 29, 2018. The weekly rate of $8,500/person includes 6 nights and 7 days (Sunday-Saturday) of daily guided hikes, fitness and exercise classes, daily massages, private accommodations for each guest, all meals and some evening elective nutrition talks and an afternoon cooking demonstration. Please contact melissan@theranchmalibu.com <mailto:melissan@theranchmalibu.com> for further information or to make a reservation.
