Jeffrey,

I have wanted to talk with you while Darren was in the cockpit about t=is, but didn't want to disturb your rest:, Darren wanted to explain what ha=pen in person, he has been very broken up about this...

Darren was flying a crop duster helicopter in Indiana and Iowa for the=past three weeks, its dangerous and long fatiguing hours, he worked 19 days stra=ght, and 16 hours a day for the $5,000 pay he was receiving.

He had an accident, while flying the Jet Ranger,, it was 5:15pm in t=he afternoon, after a 12 hour day, and finishing spaying a field of corn and=20 was looking down at the spray mechanism, when he raised his head, he hit a =ower line, it broke off the tail boom, started to spin,, he held control, and wi=h no airspeed, went straight down, he flared the main rotor system to cushion=20 his fall, and obviously survived. here is a photo of the helicopter,. he ha= minor back injuries and a mild concussion.

oh boy,

this is a photo just prior to accident , of Darren re fueling the spra=ing tanks,:
