Jeffrey,
if we have wheels in the wheel, at 2 pm Paris time:
depart Paris 8 am NY time:
option # 1 (guaranteed)
Paris - Gander 5+05 min landing 1:00 pm NY time (flying Mach .80) Gander - Teterboro depart at 2pm,,,, 2+40 min flight,, landing NY=20 would be 4:40pm.
does this sound ok, clear customs Teterboro, option # 2 (not a for sure thing)...

Paris - Bangor Maine is running- 7+10 min, I would have to fly long range cruise at Mach .77 which is approximately 35 kts slower than Mach .80 (depends on temperature at altitude), which would add +23 min just trying to make Bangor,, depart 8am NY time,
Paris to Bangor, 7+10 min,,, landing Bangor at 3:10 pm
Bangor to TEB, depart Bangor at 4:00 pm,,, arrival in TEB would be 5:05pm.

there has been an on going air traffic controllers strike in France this month, some delays are expected, but would help to have a firm departure time so I can get a reservation slot if needed for our departure to minimize any=20 possible delays for you,.

thanks,
Larry
