And this apartment situation is dragging on. The contractor will n=t send any accounting of ridiculous inflated bills and now the lawyer is j=st getting rid of her...trying to figure out what I paid for that was not =elivered and getting Chris to just finish the apartment. I have been out o= my apartment since June. I am traveling the world. Living in a fab apartm=nt on 70th...just had my neck done and I look Soooo good and packing for a=18 day trip and feeling so sorry for myself.

Would love to talk to you.
