Jeffrey,

I spoke to David Bernstein in California regarding the Boeing,

He is interested in working with us to generate a clientele base to operate the Boeing on his charter certificate.=20 There are two possible scenarios, one being a concert tour which could last=12 to 18 months, and second, a Royal Family in middle east that would purchase a block of hours, according to David he has many potential customers in that area that are willing to purchase 300+ hours.

At this time we are working the cost of operation for the next two years including maintenance, to formulate an hourly rate=20 to present to you.,

Do you want me to pursue this further?

thank you,

Larry
