Amazing! If you remember, the front fender of the triumph cracked and we took it off like 30+ years ago. I got tired of the occasion splash so I looked on ebay and found a guy selling the front fender from a 1970 triumph Daytona (our is a Tiger) brackets and all. Same bike but with different exhaust pipes and carburetion. I'm painting the fender black in the basement now.

Are you in NY? I'll have the kids here tomorrow and Tuesday.
