hi jeffrey,

..ok, then let's not wait if you have already the furniture and rugs, but then what color should i do cabana no 3?
(cabana no 3=i did green, and it is located right next to the pool, i hope i'm not confused) should i do it red/cranberry... i notice in the e-mail you sent me yesterday, that [REDACTED] mentioned something like [REDACTED] told her about red/cranberry.

sorry but nobody told me about redish color. last time when we talk about the colors for those three cabanas it was like a month and a half ago, when [REDACTED] was at the island too..it as before i started painting the ceiling in the library, and i thought we are set with the colors for the cabanas thats why i didnt ask about that again.

maybe you can send me a sample of the color, for the room and for the bathroom too.

so anyway before i put a new color on the walls i have to make them white and then put the new color... so should i do that and then wait for the color? (talking about cabana no3)

thank you,

yes to master bath,,, we have bought rugs and furniture that will not go with green,, [REDACTED] and i remember saying no green, it is a redish color= The room color must be put of the overall design, I don;t mind waiting to see , but I know it is not right.

hi jeffrey,

...you chose the color blue for the cabana no 1.. you said blue somehow like the sky color, and for the bathroom no 1 use the same pattern i did the sample(with rombs) but use a stronger blue than the blue i used in the sample on the wall.

then for cabana no 2 and 3 you said in one bathroom lavender - lilac and the room white with horizontal lavender lines (like pinto..) and the other one similar but use green instead. this is what i remember. i dont think you chose blue for cabana no 1 and then again blue for the cabana 2 or 3.

anyway, i think we should wait with the green until you come here and see, and then decide, eventually change the color if you dont like it. it would take me one day for the room and one day for the bathroom because the preparations are done now.

i didnt see the picture emad took, but maybe the green in the bathroom looks different in the picture. in real it is an optimistic green..it makes the bathroom happy. you will see..

and somehow in the bathrooms, because the walls are close to each other they reflect the color, and then a color gets much more intense than it is in real. thats why in the bathroom in cabana no 2 which is somehow lilac-blue now, i used at the beginning like lavender..lilac, but it didnt look good... when i put the color on the wall it looks intense..it was tiring..even when i did the sample on the paper it looked good..it was light. so then i added a little more blue to turn it more towards blue..

anyway its very confusing with the colors i think because of the light from outside. in the morning its one color at lunch time its different, in the afternoon different, then if its cloudy its different too.. you will see.

beside this, can we start with the white venetian plaster in the master bedroom? one person can come sunday and start monday. then later like thursday i can jump in there too and we might be able to finish it before christmas.

thank you,
ion
