Subject: FYI

This (gulp) will be my last query about our =ontract.

The contract states that I would =eceive $25,000 in 2017. But I received =20,000.

I appreciated receiving that retroactive =5000 check today.

Also, "The term =f this Agreement shall commence on February 1, 2017 and shall expire on =anuary 31, =018"

Doesn'= that mean I should receive a final $5000 check during the month of =anuary 31, 2018?

Oh, well, in any case, below is a couple of placards . . =
