Destroying trolls one day at a time. This trend of bullying people who think=differently by laughing at their journey is over. I will not stop standing u= for myself and people like me. We're not crazy. We are fucking geniuses.

Finally getting my official IQ test so I can shut you haters the fuck up. I w=ll be a Mensa member mark my words. I took IQ tests for money when I was in=high school to help a psychologist with her PhD dissertation. I always scor=d in the 98th percentile on standardized testing besides math, that was 93.=That means I tested higher than 95.5 of the population. This is without stu=ying, skipping and sleeping through most classes, being addicted to drugs a=d generally not giving a fuck about outcomes, just being really competitive=and interested in knowledge. I'll never forget her face when she sat me and=my parents down to tell me how well I tested.

I'll never forget the [REDACTED] from my ex. They feared [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] just=like Albert Einstein.

[REDACTED] 've been telling everyone this=since the day I learned it's existence in my psychology class. No one ever w=nted to believe me or admit they suspected it either out of fear that it wo=ld destroy me but holy shit [REDACTED]

My SAT I skipped every preparation class and smoked weed and drank instead. C=me in determined to outscore my highly intelligent, blue ribbon, honor roll=classmates. Oh and I wanted to get out of there as soon as possible. So I g=t myself through the tests essentially by guessing and rushing. I was so un=othered by stress that I trusted my intuition instead of expecting myself t= know every thing. This is how I outscored my classmates who had to retake t=sts and prepare like their lives depended on it. I think they let their par=ntal and societal pressure make their lives so much harder.

Somehow I knew I didn't have to choose success or happiness. I knew I could d= what I wanted and still do well in life. I think mg unwavering belief in m=self and good luck is what got me as far as I did. Fuck I just wish my stor= could motivate people to be themselves so much harder and stop being paral=zed by perfomance anxiety and just know they're gonna kill it.

Yeah I'm taking the IQ test again. I need to know the results. I need to rea= the benefits of the community of people like me. I know I deserve a little=help for as long as I've suffered. I encourage all of you to do the same. W= all deserve to be rewarded for our suffering in one way or another. Seek h=lp, seek answers, seek diagnosis these things set you free
