I've been thinking about it since you wrote. Sitting wit= Harry will be a waste of time, and unless you think it's wise, we'=re hesitant about providing Max with more information, because it's no=e of his business. I've been thinking about writing a strong let=er to Harry, telling him that of course his proposal is outrageous and des=gned to be unacceptable and that it leaves us with two options: (1) accept=ng one of the proposals I sent, preferably deciding to split the Trust and=liquidating it, or (2) letting a Court make further decisions. I'=d like to leave it up to him to make Court proceedings inevitable.<=iv style="font-size:12.8px;text-decoration-style:initial;text-decoration=color:initial">

What do you think?
