To clarify, the trust was not set up by=Carol. It was set up by a married couple, Carol and me, planning for the f=ture. It was placed in Carol's name for tax reasons, and because=we assumed that I would die first. The intention, of course, was tha= it would be available for the survivor.

I understand that you and Ha=ry have proposed several trustees. I don't know anything about them.=C2 I would like to know what questions you asked them and by what crite=ia you selected them. Without such information, I cannot have any op=nion about whether they are suitable trustees. I understand also tha= Richard Kahn made some suggestions that you rejected for no plausible rea=on and that he made further suggestions that have not received any respons=, to my knowledge.

It is proper on both legal and moral grounds for the trust to be administered in a manner that conforms to the clear and unamb=guous intentions of those who set it up, in the manner that I described.</=iv>

You mentioned that you want to have a release. Could you send a dr=ft of the release that you have in mind.
