2. Jon Haidt, who is one of the hottest younger psychologists is coming =o NYC (with wife and two babies) to spend a year at Russell Sage. He's =ooking for an apartment. See his OpEd in Sunday's NYT:
<http://www.nytimes.com/2011/05/08/opinion/08haidt.html>. Although Jewsh =nd an atheist, he often sounds like a conservative and has pushed the =heme that liberals only look at 2 out of 5 parameters, i.e. the look at =ustice and fairness and miss community, loyalty, authority. He was also =he driving force behind the EDGE morality conference

3. My housekeeper, Anna Rios, is a former Columbian marathon champion, =ho was forced to leave and come here for political reasons. Since we've =et her, as a single mother she's raised two kins, one of which, her 17 =r old daughter Karen Roa, is also a track star who is a senior majoring =n science at Umass. Karen is on her way to SantaFe for the summer to =rain for the US track team and Anna found out about SFI and is all over =e to get her daughter over there to spend time and absorb the culture.

They don't have a program and I doubt Karen has the chops to make the =rade in any kind of academic ranking, but what I care about are people =ike myself who, by accident (or force or will), escaped their parents =orld and discovered the life of the mind. So I am trying to do =omething for her with no success to date. Brian Arthur wrote a letter. =eoff West has been useless. (He is coming to the office to see me about = book on Wednesday). Any ideas? Best thing might be an internship where =he goes there a few hours a day or a couple of times a week after =ractice. But I am out of options.

4. Medically, I continue to improve slowly. And as you can see from this =mail and the Master Class, I am getting my creative energy back. You =ere very prescient when you said I would not be myself for quite a =hile.

5. Saturday is the "elopement"!
