Dear Noam and Valeria,

I spoke with Max just now. He has the names of three trustees who can serve as his successor, and with whom Harry has spoken. They are all Boston attorneys with excellent expertise in trust administration and I know two of them. Max will be sending me their contact information and I will send it along to you. I recommend that you interview them if you are in agreement after reviewing their bios. Max also asked for permission on your behalf to send a copy of the marital trust to Shari Levitan. She would also be an excellent choice as a trustee of the marital trust, especially as she resides at least part-time in Arizona and would be available to you in person more easily. Please let me know if I may provide Max with permission to end Shari the marital trust. I would be happy to send it to her myself, if you prefer.

Max also raised with me the issue of a release or the reparation of accounts for the trust. This issue is deserving of a telephone conference as there are a number of factors for you to consider. Please let me know if you are available to speak tomorrow or Friday. Tomorrow I am available any time except between noon-2:00 p.m. Eastern, and Friday I am available to speak any time except between 10:00 – 11:00 a.m. Eastern.

I am happy to have Richard join the call if he is available.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best,
Deborah
