James, I am also confused. We have corrected the problem, publicly with People Magazine and The New York Times. Although they are not out yet, so were we not waiting for the answers back from Jeffreys team?

It is really horrendous to be continually used to hurt people you care deep=y about by the newspapers. It is beyond any words, as you know.

I know you spoke to James. I of all people understand what it feels like to=be castigated by the Tabloids. I know how you feel.

I know you also feel hellaciously let down by me, from what you were either told or read, and I must humbly apologise to you and your heart for that. Y=u have always been a steadfast, generous and supreme friend to me and my fami=y.

As you know I did absolutely not say the P. Word about you. But understand =t was reported that I did.

However, I am apologising to you today for not replying to your email, or reaching out to you when the tabloids were so vicious and horrendous... In =he weeks leading up to that monday when I made my statement. And then afterwar=s. When they used me to hurt you beyond realms.

As you know, it was and is the worst nightmare for you, but also for me. As=you know the whole story did not come about because of me.

However because of my statement they made it worse for you. I understand al= this.

You know me well, and we are steadfast to that. But, I must apologise for n=t reaching out to you or answering your email. It is unlike me. Therefore, yo= can only deduce, that something else must have been going on, for me to rea=t in this way. So in the eye of your storm, which I know is hellacious, may l=ask you to accept my apology for not reaching out to you, in the eye of MY stor=, and accept and understand that I was in fear beyond all totality and I coul= not move left or right because of it, and was close to bed ridden with the =ear of what was happening. I was paralysed. I was advised in no uncertain terms=to having nothing to do with you, and not to speak or email you, and if I did,=I would cause more problems to both You and The Duke and myself. So I shut do=n and ran away. I was broken and lost. So please understand, as I do about yo=, that I ws broken and not the strong person you know, and I got completely obliterated too, and I saw all my childrens work etc disappearing.. I shut =own and everyone out. I was frightened. The Palace system is frightening, and e=ch step I turned or each action was wrong and I did not want to hurt Andrew on= more time.

So Jeffrey, this email is sent with a hope you accept, and understand a lit=le of my side too.

We are and have both been in the firing line, both blamed for stuff we have=not done, this front line attack has been like this for me for 22 years. You wo=ld have thought I was thick skinned enough to handle it. I know there are 2 si=es to every story, I have heard yours, please hear mine.

I am glad you spoke to James, and James made you aware from the British med=a standpoint, that all this hellaciousness had been going on many days BEFORE=my statement. And I was instructed to act with the utmost speed, from most si=es, if I was to have any chance at all holding onto my career as a childrens bo=k author etc and a childrens philanthropist, and I got terrified. I should ha=e taken advice from you too, before speaking to Geordie, and taken a day or t=o to think of the ramifications of my actions, but for the reasons as stated above, I was in over riding fear. I am sorry. I just did not know what or w=ere to turn.

I know James can send you every single article from the days, weeks, leadin= up to that Monday of the statement from the endless horrendous pages written a=out You and The Duke. So you can see why I became paralysed.

I know you and James are going to work on a solution.

In the meantime, I write this from the truth of my heart.
