One interesting thing is a weird new city project in Angola being buil= by the Chinese. They feel like they can't fix the city (speaking of r=trofitting!) of Luanda so they are building an entirely new huge city righ= next door. I can't wait to see it. That is certainly the Chinese way o= doing things and apparently it resonates with the Angolan leadership.

I will be in Dakar July 7-8-9. The WSH (water sanitation hygiene) team=is making a big grant to the city utilities office and the maternal health=team has made (and considering a supplement) to the public health office a=d I'm going to speak to the mayor about what more we might be able to =o. I've got a few community group meetings and site visits for the wor= of the other teams. I've got an open mind and willing to do whatever =s right by the Senegalese. I'm wondering if the timing isn't quite=perfect for our teams to invest right now (or wait a few months) but I don=#39;t have the final say on that. Anyway, if your friend would like to hav= coffee, lunch, dinner or just hang out for a bit I'd love to say hi. = promise to be on my best behavior!

I miss you and hope that you are doing ok...
