Woody Merrell is in the office, but with a patient right now...his assistant said he will only be in the office until about 11:00 (then he usually has meetings and goes down to his institute)...when she is able to get Dr. Merrell's attention it will probably be very short notice on whether you can go see him. She hopes to speak to him around 10:30 and if he can see you, you would need to hop down there right away...

I will check in with her again at 10:30
