Jeffrey,

we are putting together final arrangements if you give the final approval for this charter, personally I think its a good opportunity for money making, and good exposure for a sale.

This trip alone is $180,000 clear to JEJE,. Universal estimates a minimum of 20 hours of charter a month if we base in Europe after this mission, you know this is only a guess, however the work is there,.

our investment would be the $318,000 for insurance, the next charter would pay our insurance dept for the rest of the term.

Michael has use of a BBJ in Europe, the last 12 months, the owner netted $800,000 I think we could do the same,.

When the charter ends Sept 26 ish,,,we have 10 hours of ferry time to return home from Africa, if we elect to just end up in Paris, we would end up with a Full Fuel tanks in Paris to travel on the next trip, which is a $31,000 value,.

The initial payment would be 30-hrs x $4000 (live) = $120,000

Ferry flights: 20-hrs x $3000 (ferry) = $60,000

Pre-paid per diem: 21 days x 100x3 = $ 6,300

Deposit for un-reimbursed expenses = $50,000

Total= $236,300
