Scott tried to help with the IDisk issue and is wondering if you rec'd =n email with instruction?

The answers you gave me to the one security question did not work

You can only try to log in to the IDisk so many times...because he tried =he maximum amount of times, we are now on an 8 hour hold before we can =ry again.

Scott says the only people who would have access to your account and =password would be you, me, Scott, Jermaine and possibly Nick Lambrose =ue to Nick installing all the Apple TV's. Jermaine says he did not do =nything with the IDisk account or password.
