This week we've got a collection of our favorite places to throw a party, from 101 Hotel in under-the-radar Reykjavik to a Hard Rock outpost in celebration capital Vegas, and hot hotels in the Maldives, Barcelona, and Geneva. We also have great golf resorts in Scotland and Italy. If you're looking for a more quiet getaway, see some of our beautiful properties in Stockholm, London, and Greece. La Réserve Geneve - Geneva

<<http://click.mail.jetsetter.com/?qs=86891f72103d8945dc21108316c4d4bf0e3d137baaf0e20fcae81367f5406f67064c18e2091d1561>>

On 10 acres of lush greenery, this tranquil resort feels like the country club of another era - one with three good restaurants, a spa offering "better aging" programs and 102 luxuriously appointed rooms and suites. Just outside Geneva, La Réserve is equally popular with families, who want respite from the hectic city, and traveling international executives, who stay for a convenient hideaway before tomorrow's meeting.

Conveniently located on Barcelona's prime shopping boulevard, Passeig de Gràcia, El Palauet Living is all about location and luxury. All the suites are meticulously appointed with a blend of Art Nouveau, minimalism and the latest gadgets. Restaurants are plentiful, though you can always hire a private chef to cater to you in your fully equipped kitchen. And with Museu Picasso, Gaudi's architecture and trendy neighborhoods like the Gothic Quarter and El Raval close at hand, El Palauet Living manages to blend style with substance.

When it opened nearly a century ago, the Clift immediately earned acclaim as one of the West's most opulent hotels. Given a Surrealist-inspired makeover by the visionary hotel brand Morgans, this 363-room study in swank towers 17 floors above San Francisco's iconic Union Square. The hotel's beloved Redwood Room bar and glam Velvet Room further spike the Clift's popularity among the Bay Area A-list.

With 374 expansive suites set inside a gleaming new tower that's separate from the rest of this rocker-friendly hotel, the HRH All-Suite Tower offers proximity to hip dining, big-name concerts and the Hard Rock's famously swish pool parties. Yet with a private lobby and its own Relinquary Spa, the tower pampers its guests with a sense of exclusivity. For high rollers who prefer a youthful, sexy Vegas base camp, the Hard Rock has the perfect balance.

A 15-minute ride from Stockholm's historic Gamla Stan, Hotel J is a waterfront escape close to all the downtown highlights of Sweden's capital. Named after classic 1930s J-class yachts, the interiors have the quintessential look of a seaside summer house, with varnished floors, wood furniture and a rich navy blue and white palette. In front of the hotel, wooden reclining Adirondack chairs dot the lawn, positioned to capture views of Djurgården Island and provide a quiet waterside spot that feels a world away from the busy city.

In a land characterized by cold and ice, Reykjavik's 101 Hotel trumps all definitions of cool. The 38 rooms and suites at this boutique property have a monochromatic palette and hip design, complemented by local touches like a rotating collection of Icelandic art. The hotel restaurant specializes in traditional local cuisine, but the sleek glass-ceilinged dining room has a modern vibe that attracts visitors and locals alike.

Why settle for one hotel when you can enjoy six? That's the idea behind the Angsana Riads Collection, a group of traditional Moroccan homes - or riads - scattered about the Marrakech medina. With 41 individually designed rooms between them, the dwellings offer something for every traveler, whether you're a history buff (Riad Si Said), a spa lover (Bab Firdaus) or the sort of person who likes to spice things up by hopping from place to place. Playing house in Morocco has never been this much fun.

Perhaps the most famous golf hotel in the world, the Old Course Hotel and Spa in St. Andrews, Scotland, hovers on the edge of the Old Course and overlooks the sea. While a stay here fulfills the golf aficionado's ultimate fantasy, it also supplies an authentic Scottish experience of the bagpipes-and-tartan variety. Renovated by its new American owners (the Kohler Company), the hotel goes beyond golf to cater to everyone with a penchant for country squire opulence.
