Sneaky,

Please read the conversation below and let me know if I'm missing something here... Didn't you give them 100k for my full-time employment?

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Sorry to bother you again but I wanted to check with you regarding the below.
I am very confused now...I believe that the funding which [REDACTED] received was for my full-time employment and that what was also told by [REDACTED]?

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED],

According to my documents you were hired as a full-time Intern, unless you were recently hired as an employee. If that is the case I haven't been informed and then you do qualify for the FSA.

Hi [REDACTED]

I think you might have been misinformed but, according to my conversation with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], I will be hired as a full-time employee, not as an intern.

Hi [REDACTED],

Unfortunately, the FSA is only for full-time employees who are eligible for benefits and you are currently an External Relations Intern therefore, you do not qualify. Also I would not be able to enroll you as the deadline has passed and the system only would allow any new employees who qualify for benefits to enroll after the deadline.

Best,

Hi [REDACTED],

Happy New Year!

I believe I gave you my timesheet before the office closure?

Also, you just reminded me to follow up with you and [REDACTED], regarding Flexible Spending Account Enrollment. Although I asked you before and you said it doesn't apply to me but [REDACTED] recommended me to reconfirm this with you as, under my new contract, I will be formally employed. Can I still enroll after the C2 deadline?

Thank you and sincerely,

[REDACTED]
