Subject: letter to children

Decided to write to the three children requesting that they ask Max to resign, and quickly. Harsh and clear letter, explaining that Max has been demanding, not only improperly but for the first time. ♦=A0 He had no such scruples (as my lawyer) when he was watching the IRA being depleted by distributions to family, taxes and management fees for the entire estate (more than exhausting the mandatory withdrawal) and other expenses for the family.

Will see what happens now.
