Dear Harry,

I would welcome a call tomorrow. I have a client meeting at 8:00 a.m. Pacific but I should be available at 10:30 Pacific (1:30 p.m. Eastern). Please let me know if that works for you and if so a good telephone number to reach you.

Thanks,
Deborah

Deborah, I understand you and Max have been discussing the =arital trusts during the past few days. Do you still feel it is =rgent for you to speak to me on the phone separately from Max? I =on't yet have a new lawyer to advise me, so I probably won't want to =espond to your ideas or answer your questions over the phone. =owever, if you'd like to have a call in which you tell me what's on =our mind and I just listen and promise to respond later, we could do =hat tomorrow (Friday). I'm free all day, starting at 8am Pacific =ime.

Yes, I have a copy of the trust and I understand the =rocedure for selecting a trustee to replace Max should that become =ecessary.

Can you say more about why it is imperative for us to =peak to each other this week in particular? Is the topic of the =all simply to consider the possibility of seeking a different =o-trustee? If so, I'm not sure where the time pressure is coming =rom.

If you need to tell me something and don't want to =ait until I have established a relationship with a new attorney who can =ssist me during a call, perhaps you could send me the urgent =nformation by e-mail.

Harry,

Even though I do not represent you I would like to facilitate =our understanding of the terms of the trust which are very =straightforward relative to your appointment duties. It is imperative that we do =o for a number of reasons which I can explain when we speak.

Deborah, I'd be happy to talk to you =bout the question of who should serve as my co-trustee. I would =eed guidance from someone who is an expert in trust law and =dministration. Since Max cannot fill that role in this particular =onversation, I will need to find another professional to advise =e. I will begin my search process right away. When I have =ound someone, I will send a message of introduction to both of you and =e can begin looking for a time that we can all talk.

I will get back in touch with you =oon.

Harry now that Max has offered this clarification please send =e your availability to talk at a mutually convenient time on Monday and =uesday.

I have not heard from Max that he has decided to resign. The last time I was told (by email, citing Richard) that Max had decided to resign, it was not the case.

Max, will you please clarify your intentions?

Dear Harry,

I am writing to introduce myself, and to schedule a call with you to discuss the change of independent trustee that your father desires with respect to the Carol Chomsky Marital Trusts. As you may know, I represent your father with respect to his beneficial interest in the Trusts, and I represent your father and his wife with respect to their estate planning matters.

Your father has asked Max Kohlenberg to resign and he has agreed. Under the terms of the trust you are to make the appointment of the successor independent trustee, subject to your father's approval.

Are you available to speak on Monday between 8:00 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Eastern or between 2:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m. Eastern, or after 8:30 p.m. Eastern, or on Tuesday any time at your convenience except from 2:00 - 3:00 p.m. Eastern? Please send me a time on Monday and Tuesday that is mutually convenient.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Thank you,
Deborah Pechet Quinan, Esq.
