Dear Mr. Epstein,

I wanted=to wish you a Blessed Hanukah to you and your family. While we have not=spoken in some time I do think of you often.

I do need to ask you a favor.=AO After 20 years of dedicated service to you, standing by you, and protec=ing your interests; you decided to make a change in the management of your=aircraft sales and acquisitions. I found this out when I saw an Adverti=ement followed immediately by a call from my friend Larry. While thi= is was disappointing to me, I respect your decision. As part of the pr=cess of unwinding our directed marketing efforts we submitted invoices for=the advertising expenses that we have always been paid for previously. =AO It is in fact true that we never had a written agreement in place betwe=n you and Bristol, but as you once told me "we really don't need one=94. I am now asking you to please pay these detailed invoices as I a= help personally responsible for these expenses. I would hope that y=u would process these payments if for no other reason than our long term r=ationship. I assure these expenses are legitimate as I would never tak= advantage. I look forward to a response to this matter so I can close =his account internally.

I wish y=u well in the future and I hope keep well.
