Seems to me that given the scheduling of the phone call with Max this afternoon, the best procedure is for you (Deborah and Richard) to talk to Max today, with the goal of having him agree to resign, and then I will appoint Richard in his place. As you have explained, Harry has no voice in decisions about the Trust, and depending on what happens today, I can request that he resign.

What do you think?

sure we could void Harry's service. I'll take a look at everything prior to the call.
