Hello =effrey!

just wanted to let you know, I received =nother notice. Irene told me that she will send another letter asking =hem to place the case in abeyance. and she is not =ure what their reaction will be. One possible outcome is that they will =lose my case for abandonment and refer to court. It's possible =hey may not refer given the fact that adjustment was =iled.

Irene : > [REDACTED] if they do place you in removal =roceedings, unpleasant but manageable.
