I wrote Harry a strong letter say that the matter was inde=d urgent and shouldn't be delayed, and asked him to please arrange the=call as quickly as possible. I don't think you should bring up a=y special considerations (health, house, anything). The urgency has =o do with the taxes, and there is no reason for Max or Harry to have any e=aborate explanation of why we need the money.

When mone= was being withdrawn regularly from my IRA to pay taxes and management fee= for the entire estate, neither Max nor anyone else asked for an explanati=n or a financial review of the beneficiaries, or any account of how money =rom the trusts was being used (not for or by me). The withdrawal fro= the IRA for taxes and management fees for the entire estate was just done= There are even stronger reasons to keep to that procedure in the pr=sent case, since I am simply asking for tax payments from funds that I sho=ld have full access to.

Doesn't seem to me th=t anything is needed beyond that.

Harry,

Even though I do not represent you I would like to f=cilitate your understanding of the terms of the trust which are very strai=htforward relative to your appointment duties. Please let me know if you h=ve a copy of the trust that contains the appointment powers. In the interest of moving your father's desires forward may we please schedule a call for this week. It is imperative that we do so for a number of reasons which I can explain when we speak.

Deborah, I'd like to offer an update on my preparation for the call we are considering. I am still looking for a professional who can advise me during the call. I hope to write to you again with more concrete information soon.

Deborah, I'd be happy to talk to you about the question of who should serve as my co-trustee. I would need guidance from someone who is an expert in trust law and administration. Since Max cannot fill that role in this particular conversation, I will need to find another professional to advise me. I will begin my search process right away. When I have found someone, I will send a message of introduction to both of you and we can begin looking for a time that we can all talk.

I will get back in touch with you soon.

Thank you Max. I did not feel it necessary to include the fact that a successor that is agreeable to Harry and Noam needs to be appointed as I felt that to be obvious since Harry has the appointment power subject to Noam's approval.

Harry now that Max has offered this clarification please send me your availability to talk at a mutually convenient time on Monday and Tuesday.

Thank you,

I have not heard from Max that he has decided to resign. The last time I was told (by Noam, citing Richard) that Max had decided to resign, it was not the case.

Max, will you please clarify your intentions?
