From: Jeffrey Epstein <jeevacation@gmail.com>
Sent: Thursday, February 2, 2012 3:26 PM
To: ████████████████████ Subject: Re:

well , it certainly seems like we have no resolution. you want to =e a pilot ,, stop whining

On Thu, Feb=2, 2012 at 9:47 AM ████████████████ <mailto ████████████████ > wrote:

    I enjoyed spending time with ████ so thanks=for that but you have made me feel extremely unwelcome and uncomfortable o= the island. I have never seen you treat any of your guests this poorly. I was friendly and funny on the plane...no bad mood even after witnessing w=at most would agree, would easily justify a bad mood. I was perfect. I wou=dn't have walked in if I didn't know you would like it and find it=amuzing. I helped with bags and did not treat your guest badly in any way.=I could have left to san juan, you told me to stay on lsj. I was still in = pleasant mood and played with the girls.

    You never said thanks for flying or helping with luggage, you treated me li=e air, walked by me without a word, you made a point to be extra pleasant =owards everyone else and ignored me, with the exception of 1 sentence, whi=h was to tell me to leave earlier than I need to. I felt so uncomfortable,=I chose to stay in my room until 5 minutes before the boat and even then y=u just walked in and greeted me not by saying good morning, but simply &qu=t;Oh, you're still here."

    That was as far from friendly and welcoming as it gets.
    Sent via BlackBerry by AT&T