Subject: Annual Renewal of Google Paid Storage

Hi there,

Yep, it's been a year-- time flies, huh? You're nearing the end of your year subscription of Google paid storage for jeevacation@gmail.com, which gives you extra quota in Google services like Gmail and Picasa Web Albums. Your subscription is set to auto-renew for an additional year, and your Google Checkout account will be automatically charged on April 2, 2012.

If you do not wish to renew, please visit the account management page and downgrade to the Basic Plan.
