So I certainly wanted to rea=h out and let you know that I love you all and am so grateful to have you. I=hope we continue to make our best effort to spend what precious time we hav= all been given...together. There is no thing more important than the love o= family. I wrote this song, Second Tree, just months after Dad and Anne's p=ssing. When recording my first real album this past summer I decided to inc=ude it after all these years. I wanted to share it with you guys today.
