Subject: THANK YOU !!!

Did you hear Debor=h on the phone call yesterday mentioning that her father at the end of his=life was very concerned about what his children think of him, or something=like that?

I felt like saying "I=would like if you could keep to the legal matters". What was th=t for?

It was a recurrent practice o= hers, in meetings, bringing her father and the second woman who married h=m and wanted to take all his money, until they (his children) proved that =nd the couple divorced. And I told her that I was sorry to what had =appened to her father, but this was not Noam's case. Just in cas= if she was trying to imply some similarities.

Th=s was supposed to be my legal representative. Unbelievable and outrageous.=/div>

For four years, I have been trying to=deal with all this by myself.

=div dir="ltr">Noam and I have to send you a big THANK YOU!
