Jeffrey,

No need for limo divider, but! We do have cocoon interior and most of noise comes from cockpit and transmission overhead, Seminole's did not cocoon nor limo divider and was very very quit.

Hate to give it up and find the interior to noise, but fwd visibly is greater with out limo window, Thx Larry Sent via BlackBerry by AT&T _____

Shipping:.

My goal is to ship from London on April 23 with a May 7th arrival in Savannah. (PremAir is closed for 4 days starting tomorrow for Easter Weedend),.

my feeling would be 5 weeks once Heli arrives in the states, for paint stripe, interior and complete maintenance work,,gut tells me in service with Bell 430 JUNE 15th estimate,, please advise if your world trip makes sense to release the Bell 407 on May 15th?

thank you,
Larry

Larry,

I am all over this. I hope to have a quote to you by Monday. The biggest delay is figuring the cost to replace the aft seating with the 3 place.

In the meantime, please enjoy the attached BELL 430 suggestions we had prepared for another client.
