Hi! Didn't have internet yesterday - sorry.
We had a wonderful time in NYC although there just about 24 hours.
We missed you.

The weather was beautiful and Steve really enjoyed the benefit - we sat at =he table next to Elton John - also there Donna Karan, Michael Kors, Leonar= Lauder, etc.
For Steve that kind of New Yorker elbow rubbing is very enjoyable.

We were at the JP Morgan table(s) and sat with Mary's husband Philip, =ho is a funny guy.
Met Alexa Staley (who is [REDACTED] daughter? niece?) who is in her fi=st year of a physics PhD, very nice/smart. And his wife.
They all kne= you and Mary would introduce me as "she knows Jeffrey" which I thought wa= odd since you didn't even need a last name and they all knew you. Like Ch=r or Madonna, you seem to have gvraduated to a one-name status.

I spent most of the day with Mary and people she wanted me to meet, li=e Jamie Dimon. Not sure what I think of him.
Made a presentation to the JPM public finance team on our Africa muni =inance work.

It was a real learning experience for me in terms of the way success f=r women is viewed in that world. There is a path...corporate boards, etc.<=div> Doesn't feel like something for me - I wish I could conform and tell [REDACTED]ople what they want to hear, or just tow the party line but I know myself.=Can't do.

Now in Africa for a bit but not sure what awaits when I return home.</=iv>

HOW ARE YOU?
What ended up happening with your cholesterol?
