Hi Jeffrey,

Below is a summary of what I've done. My press release output will =ncrease. All of your public profile sites are done-- which allows me to =pload press to them from anywhere with one click.

- * I've published 7 press releases,
- * Wrote the foundation's summary and your bio.
- * Installed 19 pubic profiles with foundation's summary, bio and =abelled and tagged 62 photos for each one.
- * Labelled 62 photos for ongoing use.
- * Set up your blog with ongoing content, archived photos, links and =ress :
<<http://www.thejeffreyepsteinfoundation.com>> www.thejeffreyepsteinfoundation.com
- * Set up your main website: www.jeffreyepsteinfoundation.com with ongoing press, content, links and archived =hotos.
- * Reset your other two websites: www.jeffreyepstein.org =nd <<http://www.jeffreyepsteinscience.com>> www.jeffreyepsteinscience.com and creating 6 more pages for the .org site.
- * Continuous update of all of your public profiles with tagged =hotos and press.
- * Rewrote your Wikipedia site (as much as they would allow anyway). And =ot them to push down your mug shot and other negative content.

The new stuff is sticking now to google's 2nd page and is =eriodically on the 1st.
