I wouldn't lie to you. That really is what's happening.
For the brother he didn't tell me that but i guessed that because the uncle is also the defense one he has to go through him to have permission that's wh= he is a little hesitant ( I GUESS).
I also STRONGLY guess that they are waiting for you to propose something or s=methings you want to do there.
I also honestly would rather go back home with one of your ideas...
