What To Expect:

[REDACTED] is not Swedish or Deep Tissue massage. It is a ground-breaking, deeply effective massage modality where no oils are needed and it can be done even with your clothes on. It is painless and in fact, deeply relaxing. Many clients fall asleep during treatments due to its relaxing nature.

The first appointment consists of a full consultation so we can pinpoint the exact areas of tension and constriction, for example hips, lower back, neck or rotator cuffs. A complete Treatment Plan is then professionally designed to get you back to a homeostatic status, or in other words, pain-free and with your full Range of Motion restored.

Depending on the level of your tension and constriction causing the pain, will determine how many sessions are necessary to get you back on track and feeling like yourself again.

Start your pain-free journey with [REDACTED] and back to feeling like your amazing self again.
