Now he s trying to figure it out to the guy is" , throwing different names - like jeff oldman (probably wrong last name), pete something ending with "gimer" etc... I refused to comment... He said only a weird guy will marry me on such a short notice. I just answered that millions of girls would dream to be on my place now. He knows the guy is jewish and not bad looking in his forties... First he refused to talk, then wished good luck. Now he couldn't sleep and asked me not to go cause we "have something very special that might grow at one point in future in a marriage when I stand on my both feet solid"...meanwhile I could go to parents house for X months and see him once in while in europe. Bad bad bad plan...
