Jeffrey Epstein

hello old boot

i love you

just wanted to say that as 2017 comes to a =lose

I=know our lives have split off into different orbits now =nbsp;

there's an energetic ocean between us =hat not even I have felt like =rossing...

not sure what happened, too much water under the bridge =aybe, on both our parts

i=went to Australia and met another power player for a hot flash and then =et an amazing english entrepreneur who =romised me the world only to vanish because he got scared of his own =eelings.

and that you fell in love with a Ukrainian =entist with whom you have gone onto build a life that nourishes you. =nbsp;

and that I have barely stopped star =azing.. and probably never will... =nbsp;

It's been an good year on so many =evels filled with so much travel and fun.

Getting divorced has been an interesting process, and I must =ay Mahir has been an absolute gentleman throughout the entire affair, I =uppose knowing deep down that this was always going to come to =ass.

At least I am no longer fibbing to myself and feel more in =lignment with the most essential part of me. =nbsp;

Thanks for forwarding me the video of Jane, she is quite the =eroine.

Charlotte gets married this coming year in =rael. Can you believe that. Holy Mount of Olives...

I=hope re-building on the island has not proved too difficult a task and =hat your health is in fine fine form.

Wishing you the best of everything always, =nbsp;

To a bold and =racious New Year.

Happy New Year 2018 !! =nbsp;
