1) I am in Los Angeles. I had gone to Buenos Aires, you may recall, but upon arrival received a phone call that my step mother had been diagnosed with final stage, terminal leukemia along with her Alzheimer's and Parkinson's. Neither my step mother nor my father had been told and so I had to turn around and fly about 20 hours from BA to LA to manage that process. She is being turned over to hospice care (at home) and I am handling my father. As a result, I have little to report. That said,

2) You may recall that I had said that it would be very difficult to get anyone to focus on Sue until after the new year. In December every one of these guys is crazed and I want her to get the best possible audience from someone who is focused.

3) AYH no report yet other than they are in final negotiations I believe about insurance proceeds. I will ask for a full report from Tom to send to you.

4) Delicious.
