Subject: this 2013 , 2018 doubles exemption . less than 2500 estates

Because of the large exemption levels and myriad estate planning techniques, 99.8 percent of Americans do not have estates that are large enough to trigger the estate tax. Less than 0.2 percent—fewer than 2 in every 1,000 Americans—will pay any estate tax.⁶ <<https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/economy/report/2017/09/22/439442/windfall-wealthy-heirs/#fn-439442-6>> Out of a total of 2.6 million deaths in 2013, the most recent year for which there are data, 4,699 estates owed estate tax.⁷
