=div>Josh, would you...or should I, call Karen to set a meeting?
=br>

I think the only way to settle his "blind billing" is to try=to get her in a room with the contract and all the bills and go over every=hing.

She had offered to sit down with me =o explain all the billing, and I think, since no one has a clear picture o= her work ethics, this would be a solution.

</=iv>

It has never been an issue about paying her for the work. The issu= is to clarity in billing and percentages of commissions.

=br>

Can anyone chime in as to how we might accomplish this asap.=/div> Thank you in advance for any help.

Peggy
