Jeffrey,
This message was from my first contact, Les Rowak at ATC maintnenace for Boeing at Lasham U.K.

Larry,
We don't know of any aircraft actually owned by the major banks in the UK, and used as corporate transport.
Plenty of banks own aircraft as lease investments, but the way the banks have been attacked recently over their various 'schemes and deals' they will probably be reluctant to divulge any details of their assets, and they are likely to be held under the jurisdiction of an offshore lawyers office, or offices such as Wilmington Trust or Wells Fargo..
If I hear anything further, I'll let you know.

Brgds,
Les
