Richard,

Let's see how my discussion with Harry goes (hopefully on Mond=y) as that is the authorized course of action at this point. I will update=everyone as soon as that has occurred and will keep everyone posted in the=meantime as the telephone conference is being set up.

I agree with your characterization of Max's inquiries and stat=ments. However I am not yet convinced that recommending to Noam that=he indemnify Max for Max's past trust administration practices wil= be in Noam's best interests given how much was distributed out to the children and grandchildren over the years without Noam's ongoing authorization, relative to what was distributed to Noam and relat=ve to the balances in the trust. Let's let this last discuss=on with Harry play out early next week and then determine next steps with Noam's input and I will inform you, Noam and Valer=a without delay regarding status as I have been doing. Is this appro=ch, which is consistent with Noam's current authorization, agreeab=e? I will be emailing Harry within the next hour for an appointment to speak.

Thanks,
Deborah

deborah,

I will require a resolution of this max / harry issue by the end of the week. both harry and max should be aware that I have seen quite enough to file an action to accomplish Noam's ultimate goal. I find max's statements that noam expenses after valeria went up, often repeated but not verified. as well as his no judicial authority for denying Noam tax payments as a result of harry's influence. thx for all your help.

I think you might consider at some point going off line with max and suggesting if this is done by dec 10 noam and valeria are willing to indemnify and release him from the past...

too strange for my taste...each time he talks about the increase in noam's expenses after valeria yet i have seen nothing that supports that view.
