Some s=y that feelings can be read on the face. If true, I was =ither a very good actor (not possible according to those who worked close=y with me) or those standing in front of olive green cabin at camp David =eeded eye glasses. It was said I looked Defeated, distressed or depr=sed. . Not the case at all. I was of course disappointe=. . Their was a historic lack of results over the previous 14=days . This would be a blow to me personallly as prime minister but =uch more importantly would have serious consequences to Israel

I had been a politician all of 5 y=ars. Most of my life had been in uniform. From inc=ption as a small slightly built fresh faced teen i had selected to be part=of the begining of a new Israeli Unit , sayeret Makal. The cu=rent day equivalent of the special forces ie Delta Force (U.S) or =he SAS (U.K) . My disposition was gentically contemplative bu= it was hardened and burnised into the characteristics needed to command s=ch a group.

The rules. there was no such thing as o=er planning. Thoughts and strategies were important but action= and their results drove the next decsion. These decsions neee= to be evaluated with a cool stand offish attitude. Coldy asseseing the ne=t steps.

This military approach, led to =he frustration of many around in the polical circlles surrounding me=as Prime Minister. At my very first Meeting with President Cli=ton a year before the conclusion of talks. I had laid out in great detail =he action steps that would have to be taken in order to achieve the =eace that Israel wanted needed and hoped for.
