Dear Noam,

Thanks for your clarification regarding copying Richard on all emails. With respect to your question about the tax bill, I believe you and Valeria were provided with copies of the 2015 income tax returns, so you should have records as to the total tax bill for 2015. If you do not, I can send you copies again.

Richard has reached out to me to schedule a time to speak and I will be responding to his request with some dates and times.

Please let me know if you have heard back from Max regarding the change in trusteeship. I sent you an email on November 13th with a proposed course of action. If Max has not responded in a positive vein to the request, please review my 11/13 email and let me know if you agree with my proposed plan of action.

Best,
Deborah

We've been trying to figure out the =atter of the distributions from the Marital Trust. We received no =otice of this from Max. It seems, from what you say here, that the =istributions would have gone directly to the Treasury, for taxes. =n order to keep our records straight, we contacted Nick almost 3 weeks =go to find out what the full tax bill was and how much we actually =aid, assuming that the distribution must have paid the rest. But =e have not heard from him.

So at the moment it's unclear just what happened with =hese distributions from the Marital Trust.

On the distributions to the =randchildren, at least in 2016 I have no record of even being =onsulted, and have no record of any formal authorization for earlier =ears.

In case I hadn't made it clear before, yes, please do =eep Richard Kahn copied.

Noam

Dear Noam,

The distributions that =ere made for taxes in 2015 and 2016 were to pay your and Valeria's estimated income taxes for tax year 2015. These were the =istributions that I succeeded in getting Max to agree to make from the =arital Trusts as I was disturbed at the time, and still am, by the fact =hat distributions for your and Valeria's lifestyle and all =ncome tax payments were being made from your IRA and subjected to a =uch high level of taxation than necessary, thus unnecessarily running =own the IRA funds, considering that your funds in the Marital Trusts =ere available for your needs.

With regard to the gifts to your children =nd grandchildren, according to Max's summary distributions to =our Charitable Gift Fund, to your children, to your grandchildren, and =o the Chomsky Grandchildren's Trust were made from January 12, =010 through January 13, 2016. Since you are the only =eneficiary of the Marital Trusts (this is a legal requirement) these =ould be considered gifts from you, and as such you would have had to =ave given Max permission or direction to make these =istributions.

I hope this is helpful. Noam do you want me to keep Richard Kahn copied on our correspondence? You would be waiving attorney client privilege as we have discussed and I am concerned that he and I will be working inefficiently if we are both not copied on all emails regarding your and Valeria's financial affairs. Please let me know as I think his input is helpful. I am not copying him on replies to you where you have not copied him on our initial email to me, hence my question.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best,
Deborah

Please do send hard copies to us, and =ither fax or hard copies to Richard Kahn, depending on his =reference.

I looked over what Max sent. It is of no use. The =istributions that allegedly went to me are for taxes, but I have no =ecord of this and have no idea what it means. Taxes for =hat? For which accounts? Did that relieve taxes that I was =upposed to pay? If so, how? With no details given, this =oesn't tell me anything useful. As for distribution to =randchildren's trusts, that was in 2014. I don't recall giving =authorization then.

Noam

Dear Noam and Valeria,

Further to my note to you of yesterday, below, please let me know if you would like my office to send you hard or fax copies of Max's latest information and if you would like me to forward to Richard. Please also let me know if all of the distributions to the children and grandchildren over the years were made with Noam's agreement.

I look forward to your responses to my emails over the course of this week which raised various issues.

I hope you are both well.

Best,
Deborah

Dear Noam and Valeria,

Were you able to open and access the secure email from Max? If not would you like me to have the contents faxed to you tomorrow?

Please also let me know if you would like my office to fax the contents to Richard.

The information is quite interesting. It looks as though much more in distributions was made to your children and grandchildren from the marital trusts than to you and I wonder whether this was done with your agreement?

I am home sick today but will be able to coordinate for you tomorrow when I hope to be back in the office.

Best,
Deborah
